Relation with The World

Their relationship with The World is limited to more than being one of the many worlds that crossed during the Conjunction of the Spheres and liberated several monsters/beasts in The World. This is the world that introduced the Necrophage classification of beings into The World.

Notable Races

Ancient Drowners

The original species of drowner created by The Source during the Elohim-Cosmic Horror War to deal with corpse cleanup following battles in or around large bodies of water. Ancient drowners were not as predatory as their descendants and could be assigned low difficulty tasks on top of their cleanup duties, meaning they were also more intelligent than their descendants.

Ancient Ghoul

The original species of ghoul created by The Source during the Elohim-Cosmic Horror War to deal with corpse cleanup following battles. Ancient ghouls were quite a bit more intelligent and docile than their descendants, following orders given to them from their superiors faithfully.

Ancient Hag

Originally a nymph-like race that did not eat corpses but due to negative energy from Cosmic Horrors, Hags started appearing.

Hags

There is at least one example of hags being female variants of Necrophages, such as Annis Hags being the female version of Rotfiends.

- Annis Hags (Female Form of the Devourers) (Human level intelligence)
- Bheur Hags (Human level intelligence)
- Grave Hags (Human level intelligence)
- Green Hags (Human level intelligence)
  - Water Hags (Bestial level intelligence)
- Night Hags

Rotfiend (Male) (Bestial Intellect)

The male variants of Hags. This is the most commonly run into type of male hag.

- Devourers (Male) (Bestial Intellect)
- Greater Rotfiends (Bestial Intellect)
- Scurver (Bestial Intellect)

Ancient Gravelords

The name give to the top species of the Necrophage order, which would eventually evolve and split into Bullvores and the male-female pair of Graveirs and Cemetaurs.

Ancient Wights

A poison-resistant species Ancient Wights acted as cooks for the Necrophage Horde, creating brews that strengthened and restored the group's energy and appetite while disposing of the corpses after battles in the Elohim-Cosmic Horror War, eventually, Ancient Wights after the war would stop sharing their brews with other Necrophages and would instead only brew for themselves and occasionally a mate or a child Wight, though Wights did not stay together long, just long enough for the Wight child to achieve self-sufficiency.

Spotted Wights (Bestial Intellect)

Trivia

- A current theory is there is no Necrophage Homeworld and rather Necrophages come from Tír na nÓg, this is supported by the presence of these creatures and they having a place in the natural order of the world.
